

APRES LEISURE

MASTER PLAYBOOK + BRAND BIBLE

VERSION 7 | APRIL 2026 | CONFIDENTIAL

The adventure changes. The feeling never does.
Every day is Apres.

apresleisure.com | apresleisure.ai

What's New in V7

This document supersedes V5 Playbook and V5 Brand Bible, and aligns to the locked V6 logo/color system. Use this as the single source of truth.

Locked since V6 / V5

- Logo system finalized: Triangle Sasquatch primary mark, neon bar sign as environment-only
- Color system locked: Electric Blue + Coral on Brand Black primary; Purple/Magenta/Forest Green for campaigns
- Entity: Wyoming C-Corp (registration pending)
- Site architecture: apresleisure.com = brand + shop; apresleisure.ai = avatar/Legend builder + email capture

New in V7

- Alter Ego positioning layer — the brand's core psychological unlock, inspired by Todd Herman's framework
- Three cause pillars confirmed: Planet (POW), Mind (NAMI Utah), Third Place (rotating quarterly)
- Character renames: Maxxx Do'sage → Maxxx Dozage; Squaw-Squatch → The First; Ghost pillar creature → The Hush, Alien pillar creature → The Visitor
- NFT/Web3 references removed from active roadmap (parked as future optionality)
- Founding Creators program (Founding 100) defined
- Lore Points loyalty framework (general structure; weights to be finalized)
- Solo-operator reality with AI agent stack — replaces prior multi-contributor/Slicing Pie framing
- Typography for social/promos: League Spartan (headings), Montserrat (body)
- QR system live; Canva used for Legend creation; hosting migrated (Zapier/WordPress automation in progress)

01 — The Brand Truth

Apres Leisure is not a ski brand. Not a mountain brand. Not a beach brand or festival brand or camping brand. It is the brand of what happens after. After the run, the wave, the trail, the set, the summit, the shift, the sprint.

The moment when the activity ends and the real living begins — boots off, drink in hand, fire going, people gathered, something watching from the dark edge of wherever you are. That moment belongs to everyone who has ever earned it.

The Brand Truth

Apres is not a time of day. It is not a sport. It is not a season.

Apres is the feeling of being exactly where you should be, having done exactly what you came to do, with exactly the right people — and something mythical in the trees.

The Alter Ego Layer — Brand's Deepest Unlock

Performance brands sell what you wear when the day begins. Apres Leisure makes what you become when it ends.

Inspired by Todd Herman's Alter Ego Effect framework, the 20 Legends of the LeisureVerse are identity prompts. You channel your creature when you need the trait: Captain SendIt for courage, Chill Bill for calm, Luna Drift for stillness, The First for rootedness. Pick your creature. Wear the signal. The rest takes care of itself.

This is the positioning unlock. We do not compete with Patagonia on gear performance. We sit in a category they cannot occupy: the character you become after the gear comes off. Framed as play, permission, and identity — never as clinical or therapeutic claim.

What We Are Not

WE ARE NOT	WHY NOT	WHAT WE ARE INSTEAD
A premium ski/snow brand	Bogner, Moncler, Arc'teryx own heritage and price	The brand of every season, terrain, and adventure that ends in apres
A performance gear brand	Patagonia, Arc'teryx, Salomon own function	The brand of the feeling after the function is done
A novelty/souvenir brand	Resort gift shops own that. We are not a postcard	A brand worth keeping — collectible, meaningful, community-backed
A luxury lifestyle brand	Not our price point, not our people, not our vibe	Accessible with premium details — mid-premium tiered

WE ARE NOT	WHY NOT	WHAT WE ARE INSTEAD
Season or sport-specific	Ski-only cuts out 10 months of relevance	All-season, all-terrain, all-community

02 — Logo System (Locked V6)

The logo system was finalized following focus group testing (n=28) and iterative refinement. This is locked. No further vote process.

The Primary Mark — Triangle Sasquatch

A mountain triangle (the A-form) with Sasquatch silhouette standing within it, above a horizon sweep representing land, ocean, and sky. This single mark encodes the entire brand philosophy:

- The triangle = summit achieved, effort complete, the A of APRES
- The Sasquatch = the mythic, the unexplained, the creature who was already here, OG Legend
- The horizon sweep = the liminal moment — neither here nor there, mountain meets ocean
- Together = the earned moment. The apres.

Two-Version System

VERSION	VERSION A — CLEAN	VERSION B — REVEALED
Sasquatch visibility	Embedded — reads mountain first, creature on second look	Unmistakable — Sasquatch front and center
Primary use	Everyday tees, hats, hang tags, packaging, press, partnerships	Limited drops, hexagon patches, avatar frames, digital assets, campaigns
Gradient use	FLAT COLOR ONLY in production — no gradients on embroidery, screen print, or partner files	Full gradient permitted for digital, social, drop announcements, campaign hero

Three-Tier Logo System

TIER	NAME	USE CASES	RULES
1	Primary Mark	Packaging, hang tags, partnerships, press, embroidered hat, chest tee	Flat color. Single-color variant required. Max 3 colors
2	Icon Mark	Hat patch, favicon, app icon, social avatar, QR scan destination	Must work at 40x40px and 2in embroidered. No wordmark

TIER	NAME	USE CASES	RULES
3	Lifestyle / Character Art	Campaign content, drop visuals, meme assets, character reveals	Full gradient + glow permitted. Art, not a locked logo

Secondary Environment — Neon Bar Sign

Horizontal script 'Apres' + block 'LEISURE' in neon rectangle with mountain silhouettes. This is NOT the primary logo. It is the brand's environmental aesthetic — the visual language of the space Apres Leisure creates. It is featured as the hero environment on apresleisure.com but never replaces the Primary Mark as brand identifier.

Use the neon bar sign for:

- apresleisure.com hero header and section backgrounds (pressure-tested for this use)
- QR campaign posters and physical signage
- Drop announcement graphics and countdowns
- Social profile headers (not avatar — avatar uses Icon Mark)
- Event signage and pop-up displays (once events begin)

Hot pink / magenta for primary campaigns; purple for limited drop moments; always on black.

Production Requirements — Non-Negotiable

- Max 3 colors per logo application
- No gradients in embroidery or screen-print production files
- Thick outline strokes — minimum 2pt at production size (embroidery-safe)
- All marks must work in: full color, single black, single white, reversed
- Icon Mark must pass the 40px test before sign-off
- Flat single-color variant of Primary Mark required before any merch production

03 — Color System (Locked V6)

Dark-mode brand with a two-mode campaign palette. All primary brand applications live on a near-black background. White is a utility color — never a background.

Primary Palette

NAME / HEX	ROLE	RATIONALE
Brand Black #0A040F	Primary background	Near-black with warm undertone — feels like depth of night, not void. More alive than pure black
Electric Blue #00B2FF	PRIMARY hero color	Electric, alive, mountain glacier meeting open ocean. Dominant in logo wordmark and icon mark
Coral Neon #FF6B4A	PRIMARY accent	Campfire, coral reef, sunset. The warmth after exertion. Used for LEISURE wordmark, accents, CTAs
Soft White #F5F7FA	Utility only	Body text on dark, single-color embroidery, reversed applications. Never a background

Campaign / Drop Palette

NAME / HEX	ROLE	RATIONALE
Neon Purple #8B5CF6	Limited drops, digital hype	Hush/Ghost Collection, rare-drop signal, future digital ownership layer
Hot Pink / Magenta #FF2D78	Neon bar sign campaigns	QR poster environments, seasonal activations. The lodge sign. The bar you earned
Forest Green #2D6A4F	Accent / collab only	Trail/outdoor co-brand editions, horizon sweep suggesting terrain. Never primary — always supporting

The Horizon Sweep — Intentional Ambiguity

The sweep element at the base of the triangle is interpretive. It reads as mountain ridgeline for the alpine audience, ocean horizon for the coastal audience, desert floor for the desert/festival audience, and the liminal line between effort and rest for everyone. Do not over-explain it in brand copy. Let people find their own terrain in it.

04 — Typography System

Logo Typography

The logo uses a bold geometric sans-serif — clean, slightly wide, maximum legibility at small sizes. Specific typeface finalized by designer per V6 brief:

- Bold geometric sans-serif (NOT Inter, NOT Roboto, NOT Arial in final brand applications)
- Slightly condensed or normal width — never extended
- Strong vertical strokes — holds up in embroidery
- Reference: Bebas Neue, Dharma Gothic, Industry, Furore, or similar

Social + Promo Typography (Locked V7)

For Canva templates, social posts, website body content, email, and any promotional content outside the logo mark:

USE	FONT	NOTES
Headings / display	League Spartan	Bold geometric sans — pairs with logo family. Use Bold or Black weights
Body / paragraph	Montserrat	Clean, readable, widely supported in Canva and web. Regular or Medium weights

Typography Rules — Non-Negotiable

- 'APRES' is always dominant — larger, heavier, or more prominent than 'LEISURE'
- 'LEISURE' uses wider letter-spacing — creates the secondary beat
- Never overly stylize — timeless over trendy
- Body text: 14–16pt minimum — legibility over style
- Script font reserved for neon bar sign secondary only — never primary mark

05 — Brand Voice

Brand voice is what makes content feel like it came from a person, not a company. Apres Leisure's voice comes from a worldview, not a creative brief.

Voice in Four Words

QUALITY	IN PRACTICE	SOUNDS LIKE	NEVER SOUNDS LIKE
Warm	The lodge is always open. Every terrain, every season. You belong here.	You found us. Pull up a chair.	Exclusive members only.
Weird	The unexplained is welcome. Cryptids are canon. Mystery is a feature.	Sasquatch was doing apres before the lifts existed.	Our designs are inspired by nature.
Dry	Smart humor over loud humor. The joke lands quietly, then echoes.	Something was watching. It gave us five stars.	OMG Bigfoot is SO random!!
Earned	We trust our audience. We do not explain the joke.	You know what day it is.	As you may know, apres-ski refers to...

All-Season Language Rules

- Never say 'ski' or 'snow' in primary brand copy. Use 'adventure,' 'the day,' 'out there,' or name the feeling
- Every terrain is home — mountains, coasts, deserts, forests, festival fields all belong equally
- Apres is a verb as much as a noun. 'The surf was perfect. Time to apres.'
- Never reference a specific sport as the gateway — the brand is about where you end up
- Creatures are always present tense — 'Sasquatch hikes in summer. The Hush haunts coastal fog in fall.'

06 — Cause Pillars

Three pillars. Each ties directly to a piece of the LeisureVerse. Each is a reason to show up, a reason to post, and a reason to buy.

Planet — Protect Our Winters (POW)

No winters, no Hush Collection. No summers, no Visitor. POW is fighting to keep every season worth showing up for — and so are we. A portion of every drop supports the fight.

- Cross-promotion: drop launches tied to seasonal POW campaigns
- Content angle: 'The terrain we're fighting for' — terrain photography + POW issue briefs
- Collab target: POW x Apres Leisure patch (Phase 2)

Mind — NAMI Utah

The Alter Ego framework is play, not therapy — but the cultural work of destigmatizing mental health is aligned with why the LeisureVerse exists. NAMI Utah does the quiet, critical work of supporting people and families through mental illness.

- Partnership basis: assumed cross-promotion agreement (to confirm in writing)
- Anchor event: NAMIWalks Utah 2026 — sponsorship + team entry
- Content angle: 'Pick your creature' reframed as small daily mental-health cue; channel Chill Bill when overwhelmed, Luna Drift when you need stillness
- Guardrail: never claim the avatars are therapeutic tools — play and permission language only

Third Place — Rotating Quarterly

The Third Place — the space beyond home and work where community forms — is the foundational LeisureVerse concept. Every quarter, the lodge lights up for a new cause that protects or creates Third Places.

- Selection: Founding Creators vote from a community-nominated shortlist
- Announcement: paired with each seasonal drop
- Starter shortlist to source from: Utah Outdoor Therapies, Be Better Utah, The Speedy Foundation, local trail stewardship orgs, surf/coast protection groups, festival safety and harm-reduction nonprofits

07 — Target Audience

Audience is defined by a feeling and a worldview, not a sport or season. Three personas united by what they value, not what they do.

Persona 1 — The Adventure Local

Lives in or near a destination — mountain town, coastal community, desert hub, trail town. Apres is Tuesday, not aspiration.

- Age 22–38 | Income $30k–$70k | Platforms: Instagram, TikTok, Reddit, Discord
- Cities: Tahoe, Park City, Whistler, Tofino, Bend, Moab, Sedona, Byron Bay, Encinitas
- Wants: inside-joke merch, collectible drops, signals that separate 'real one' from 'tourist'

Persona 2 — The Lifestyle Chaser

Lives in a city or suburb. Organizes life around trips — ski weekends, surf trips, festival season, camping runs. Wears the lifestyle every day, not just when they're in it.

- Age 28–50 | Income $60k–$120k | Platforms: Instagram, TikTok, Pinterest, Spotify
- Cities: Denver, SLC, Seattle, Portland, LA, Chicago, Austin, NYC, London, Sydney
- Wants: lifestyle apparel that travels, year-round identity, insider feeling even 600 miles from terrain

Persona 3 — The Cryptid Curious

May have zero outdoor sport background. Here for the mythology, the aesthetic, the weird humor, the community. The widest-net audience and the most digitally native buyer.

- Age 18–50 | Income $25k–$65k | Platforms: TikTok (primary), Reddit, YouTube, X
- Lives anywhere — fully digital first (for most)
- Wants: a universe to inhabit, character identity, wearable mythology with quality behind it

What All Three Share

- Buy identity, not just products
- Reward brands that are in on the joke
- Community-first — they grow the brand for you
- Distrust corporate — a neon bar-sign logo beats a corporate wordmark
- Early adopters — the people their circle looks to for what's next

08 — Website System

Two digital properties, distinct purposes. Hosting migrated in April 2026; Zapier / Easy WP Zap automation in progress.

apresleisure.com — The Brand + Shop

- Role: brand universe entry point for cold traffic; primary commerce
- Hero: Neon bar sign environment with Primary Mark overlay
- Primary CTA: 'Apres Access'
- Content: drop announcements, character reveals, brand story, cause pillar pages
- Dark mode always — Brand Black background throughout
- Pending fix: 404 error (priority)

apresleisure.ai — The Avatar / Legend Builder

- Role: email capture engine disguised as a fun experience
- Primary CTAs: 'Enter the LeisureVerse' and 'Forge Your Legend'
- Logo: Triangle Sasquatch with full pink-to-purple-to-blue gradient permitted (digital property)
- Architecture: Anthropic API (Claude) generates text output + personalized Legend assignment; pre-rendered Canva-built art assets composite into the final avatar reveal
- Build status: field structure built, clickpaths in testing; vendor image tools (Midjourney, etc.) deferred in favor of in-house Claude + Canva pipeline

Avatar Tier Structure

TIER	PRICE	WHAT IT UNLOCKS
Tier 1 — Free	$0	Basic avatar + AL frame. Email captured on creation. Merch recommendation served on completion
Tier 2 — Purchaser	Auto	Any merch purchase auto-unlocks creature skin via Shopify webhook
Tier 3 — Premium Frame	$4.99–9.99	Animated seasonal frame. Impulse price. Pure margin
Tier 4 — Custom Build	$19.99–29.99	Full custom creature: colors, accessories, background. High intent, high value

Website Design Rules

- Brand Black background on all pages — no light mode

- Electric Blue for primary CTAs and nav highlights
- Coral for secondary accents, price points, urgency elements
- Purple reserved for drop-specific pages and limited release moments
- Neon bar sign environment appears in apresleisure.com hero only
- Primary Mark is the nav identifier — not the bar sign
- Mobile-first: over 70% of traffic expected from mobile QR scans

09 — Dynamic QR System

Every product surface is a permanent, retargetable marketing channel. Dynamic QR codes update destination without reprinting. QRs are live and ready for social promos and printouts.

Three QR Moments

MOMENT	TRIGGER	DESTINATION
QR 1 — Trial	Free sticker in wild, hang tag on product	apresleisure.ai avatar creator — email capture first, merch second
QR 2 — Promo	Order insert, post-purchase packaging	Personal referral link — earn $5 Shopify credit for sharing
QR 3 — Drop	Limited item, hexagon patch, seasonal release	Password-gated countdown for next Legend release

QR Placement by Surface

SURFACE	PLACEMENT	CTA / DESTINATION
Tee (back)	Center back below collar	SCAN FOR APRES — current drop / shop
Hexagon patch	Bottom-right, neon-framed	Shop / current seasonal drop
Hang tag front	Lower third	Scan to enter the LeisureVerse — avatar creator
Sticker	Reverse or bottom-right	Avatar creator or current campaign
Hat brim inside	Inside sweatband	Nice hat. Scan this. — Shop or seasonal drop
Packaging insert	Inside flap	Your apres starts here — avatar creator
Neon bar sign poster	Bottom center, neon-framed	SCAN FOR APRES — campaign landing page

Tool: QR Tiger (~$15/month). Dynamic QR with analytics. Non-negotiable from day one.

10 — Founding Creators Program

The Founding 100

The first 100 people to create an avatar at apresleisure.ai and place an order. Named, numbered, permanent. This is the generous, aggressive offer — calibrated to seed early community and lock in brand evangelists before scale.

What Founding 100 Receive

- 30% off first order; 20% off lifetime (auto-applied at checkout, no code required)
- Numbered 'Founding Legend' hexagon patch (001–100) — only ever made once
- 48-hour early access to every drop, forever
- 2x Lore Points on every action, for life
- A vote in the quarterly rotating charity selection
- Name or handle on the apresleisure.com Founding Wall

Landing Page Copy

The first 100 people who show up are the ones we never forget. Founding Creators shape the LeisureVerse from the inside — and wear the proof.

Financial Caveats — Flagged for Review

- Margin reality: 20% lifetime on POD with 45–55% gross margin lands at ~30–40% post-discount. Defensible if LTV is the play; run the math vs. Klaviyo repeat-purchase assumptions
- Lifetime language: hard to walk back. Alternative: '20% off first year, renewable based on activity' gives flexibility if economics shift
- Action: finalize terms before apresleisure.ai Founding signup page goes live

11 — Lore Points Loyalty Framework

General architecture. Specific point values and thresholds to be finalized separately. This is the shell that holds together; slot in the weights when ready.

Earning — Five Categories

CATEGORY	BEHAVIORS
Arrival	Creating an avatar, joining the email list, first purchase
Signal	QR scans, sharing avatar to social, tagging the brand in the wild
Return	Repeat purchases, seasonal drops, streak behaviors
Community	Attending Gathers (once launched), UGC posts, referrals that convert
Lore	Finding easter eggs, character reveals, story interactions

Spending — Four Tiers

TIER	REWARDS
Low — Impulse	Sticker packs, enamel pins, avatar frame unlocks
Mid	Discount codes (tiered by point value), free shipping, lore cards
High	Early drop access passes, custom avatar builds, limited patches
Legendary	1-of-1 items, character-naming rights on future Legends, annual Founding-level status renewal

Multipliers

- Founding 100: 2x Lore Points forever
- Drop windows: 1.5x during 48hr Founding pre-sale
- Community events: flat bonus per Gather (once events begin)
- Seasonal creature swap (Hush arrival, Visitor return): 2x all actions for 72 hours

12 — Content Pillars

Every post maps to one of five pillars. Together they cover the full community lifecycle.

Pillar 1 — The Universe

Mythology is the deepest community glue that exists. Long-term brand equity play — the content no ad spend can manufacture.

Core message: Every terrain has its legends. The LeisureVerse is everywhere.

Pillar 2 — The Feeling

Broadest reach content. Everyone who has ever finished anything and exhaled with relief understands this feeling. Highest share rate. No product required.

Core message: You don't have to be on a mountain. Apres is a feeling, not a location.

Pillar 3 — The Inside Joke

Content only the right people fully get. Creates deep recognition from your audience and curious confusion from outsiders. Highest engagement pillar.

Core message: If you know, you know. And if you don't — you're about to.

Pillar 4 — The Drop

Content-first, product-second. People buy the story, the creature, the season — the product is the physical artifact of something they already emotionally own.

Core message: Limited because it means something. Seasonal because the creatures move.

Pillar 5 — The Invitation

Every follower was a stranger once. This pillar lowers the barrier and frames joining as identity, not transaction.

Core message: The terrain changes. The lodge is always open. You belong here.

13 — Monetization & Offer Architecture

Core Product Catalog — 8 SKUs

SKU	PRODUCT	PRICE	MARGIN	SEASON
01	Hero Tee — Version B creature revealed	$42–48	45–55%	Year-round
02	Everyday Tee — Version A clean mark	$34–40	45–55%	Year-round
03	Patch — Sasquatch (evergreen)	$24–28	60–70%	Year-round
04	Patch — The Hush (fall/winter limited)	$26–30	60–70%	Fall/Winter
05	Patch — The Visitor (summer limited)	$26–30	60–70%	Summer
06	Sticker 3-Pack (all three pillar creatures)	$12–15	70–80%	Year-round
07	Trucker Hat — Version A	$34–42	40–50%	Spring/Summer
08	Beanie — AL monogram	$28–35	40–50%	Fall/Winter

Premium Signals Without Premium Price Points

- Lore card in every order: character art + ode on heavy card stock + QR = ~$0.40 per unit, priceless unboxing
- Woven labels over printed, numbered limited patches ('047 of 150')
- Custom tissue paper with AL neon mark
- These details make a $38 tee feel like something you were supposed to find

Seasonal Drops

- The Hush Collection (Fall/Winter): drops at first fog/first snow. 50–150 units. Patch + tee bundle $65–85. Founding 100 get 48hr early access
- The Visitor Collection (Summer): drops at summer solstice. Desert/festival colorway. Same limited mechanics
- Festival Edition: co-branded for specific events or festival seasons. QR routes to event landing page
- Collab Drops: mountain town, surf shop, trail-brand co-branded patches. Shared audience, split revenue

The Conversion Loop

- DISCOVER — Creature spotted on stranger's patch at trailhead/beach/festival. QR scanned
- ENGAGE — They follow. Lore, jokes, feeling content make them stay
- CREATE — Build avatar at apresleisure.ai. Email captured. Creature assigned
- CONVERT — Merch recommendation served. They buy. Tier 2 avatar unlocked. They share
- COLLECT — Seasonal drop email arrives. Limited. Their creature. Their season. They buy again
- AMPLIFY — They wear it. Post it. QR drives new scans from new strangers. Loop restarts

14 — Legends of the LeisureVerse

20 legends. Each is a character, a social series, a product drop, and an avatar tier. Pillar trio (The First, The Visitor, The Hush) anchors the mystique — personified characters color in the ecosystem.

Release Sequencing Rules

- One legend per week maximum — mythology needs time to breathe
- Each legend introduced on social as a 'sighting report' — not a product announcement
- Catchphrase = the sticker, the caption, the community call sign, the merch tag
- Giggles debuts before Maxxx Dozage (confirmed sequencing)

Pillar Trio — Mystique / Seasonal

LEGEND	ROLE	SEASON	CATCHPHRASE
The First (Sasquatch)	Origin — evergreen anchor	Year-round	She Was Here Before.
The Visitor (Alien)	Visitation — summer swap	Summer / festival	They Came. They Stayed.
The Hush (Ghost)	Quieting — fall/winter swap	Fall / Winter	The Fog Rolled In.

The three pillar creatures stay mystique-coded — no personified quirks, no catchphrase jokes. They are the mythology. The 17 named Legends below are the personalities.

Named Legends — Quick Reference

#	NAME	ARCHETYPE / CATCHPHRASE
01	Maxxx Dozage (renamed from Do'sage)	Keeper of Good Vibes — 'Peace. Love. Good Vibes Only.'
02	Giggles the Powder Clown	Part wanderer, part performer — 'Follow the Laughter.'
03	Fluffy Rocks	Patient trickster, rockstar by night — 'Don't Stop Believing.'
04	Grunts Allotocus	Guardian of trailheads and parking lots — 'You'll Hear Him Before You See Him.'

#	NAME	ARCHETYPE / CATCHPHRASE
05	Furry Astronaut	Cosmic wanderer at night's peak — 'Party Among the Stars.'
06	The Dictator	Self-appointed commander of leisure — 'I've Got a Plan.'
07	Hombre Condimento	Master of flavor — 'Needs a Little Something.'
08	HazMatt	Chaotic scientist of the wilderness — 'Stand Back.'
09	Captain SendIt	No hesitation, full commitment — 'SEND IT.'
10	Luna Drift	Night wanderer — 'Night Knows the Way.'
11	DJ Campfire	Keeper of the sacred playlist — 'One More Song.'
12	Trail Wizard	Ancient guide — 'This Way.'
13	Stoney Baloney	Adventure philosopher — 'Think About It.' [NAMI flag: reframe before pairing with MH content]
14	Ranger Danger	Protector of wild places — 'Respect the Wild.'
15	Mirage Maria	Appears when magic is needed — 'See You Somewhere.'
16	Captain SendIt Jr.	The apprentice — 'Still Learning. Still Sending.'
17	Sunset Sally	The adventure's true finish line — 'Wait for It.'
18	Chill Bill	The calmest being in any terrain — 'No Rush.'

Two slots open for future Legends (positions #19 and #20 reserved). Naming-rights may be offered to Legendary-tier Lore Point redemption.

Character Guardrails

- Stoney Baloney + Maxxx Dozage: both carry substance-adjacent coding. Keep out of any content directly tied to NAMI Utah partnership. Reframe copy to emphasize contemplation/vibe over altered-state
- Squaw-Squatch retired permanently — renamed to The First. Do not use old name in any file, asset, or archive searchable copy
- Captain SendIt Jr. is not an age-specific character — works for young and adult buyers both

15 — 30-Day Content Calendar

4–5 posts per week across Instagram and TikTok. Season-agnostic unless noted.
Goals: REACH (new audience), TRUST (credibility), CONVERT (purchase or avatar creation).

17 — Operations Reality

Honest framing — replaces prior multi-contributor / Slicing Pie section.

Team Structure

Chip (Chief) is the sole operator. Advisors (Matt, David, Andy) are in advisory roles only and will convert to investors once KPIs move. No active contributors on equity vesting schedules. AI agent stack replaces traditional hires.

AI Agent Workforce — Roles (Chip orchestrates; agents execute)

- Content Agent — generates 30-day calendars, Creature Odes, sighting reports
- Social Agent — assists Buffer scheduling, caption drafts, engagement prompts
- CTO Agent — Shopify + Klaviyo + QR Tiger + Zapier orchestration
- Analytics Agent — weekly sell-through, QR scan rates, email performance diagnostics
- Creative Agent — character design briefs, Canva template prompts, AI image prompts for Claude-driven Legend generation

Entity & Banking

- Wyoming C-Corporation (registration pending)

18 — Open Items & Next Steps

Needs Decision

- Finalize Founding 100 lifetime discount terms (20% lifetime vs. 20% first year + renewable)
- Slot specific point values into Lore Points framework
- Legends #19 and #20 — character concepts or reserve for community naming rights
- NAMI Utah partnership — confirm cross-promotion agreement in writing
- First rotating Third Place charity — propose shortlist vote to Founding 100 once launched

Needs Execution

- Kill 404 error on apresleisure.com
- Finish Easy WP Zap / Zapier integration
- Apresleisure.ai clickpath: document Claude API + Canva composite architecture in build spec
- Build Founding Wall page component on apresleisure.com
- Build Lore Points tabulation (Shopify + Klaviyo + custom fields, or Smile.io / equivalent)
- Commission Legend character design briefs for Giggles (first release), then Maxxx Dozage

Parked for Future Sessions

- Agent team instruction pack (per-agent prompt templates) — next doc to build
